GRACA U. PITMAN. As will be recollected this was a case arising out of the sale of the Macao Gambling Farm. At the first sale Mr John Pitman became apparently the purchaser on behalf of a Chineso syndicate, and gave a leque for $10,000 to the Macao Government or their representative, but which on presentation at the Bank was dishonoured. The Corean officials are as seems to be their nature—outwardly friendly, but inwardly of haughty and hostile mind, especially the new Governor of Tokugenfu, who is of an obstinate and sulky nature.
